First Announcement and Call for Papers

The International Symposium on Innovation and Sustainability of Structures in Civil Engineering (ISISS-2017) will be held on Sept. 28-30, 2017 in Xi'an, China. The conference will be organized by Xi'an University of Architecture and Technology with the sponsoring organizations.

ISISS was founded by Professor Jie Li“李杰”and Professor Zhishen Wu“吴智深”, and the first conference was held in Nanjing in 2005. Thereafter, the conference has sequentially been held in Shanghai (2007), Guangzhou (2009), Xiamen (2011), Harbin (2013) and Beijing (2015).

The objective of the symposium is to provide an international forum for researchers, specialists, professionals and public administrators and for all concerned with the promotion and exchange of information on innovation in civil engineering. The symposium is aimed at presenting and publishing the most recent research & development on innovative materials, technologies, structures and systems with high performance and sustainable attributes, especially for disaster prevention and relief.

Conference Topics

Papers on all aspects in the innovation and sustainability of steel, concrete, masonry, timber, FRP and composite construction, technologies, especially the papers on disaster prevention and relief, and preservation and revitalization of earth will be considered for presentation in the symposium.

Conference

Symposium Outline

The symposium will run over two days including the keynote lectures and session presentations by the authors of all accepted papers. General and plenary sessions will be accompanied by organized mini-symposia, workshops, technical sessions and exhibitions. All the accepted papers will be published in a special volume of the Symposium Proceedings with international standard book number (ISBN). The proceedings of the former ISISS conferences have been indexed or being indexed by ISTP. For any further information on the symposium and the full program, please visit the conference website:

<http://isiss2017.csp.escience.cn/dct/page/1>.

Abstract

All abstracts submitted to the symposium should be written in English. Prospective authors are invited to submit an abstract (300 words maximum) that clearly describes the contents of the proposed paper by Nov. 30, 2016. A complete abstract should include the paper title, author's names, affiliations, address, phone number, fax number, and e-mail address. Authors of accepted abstracts will receive instructions on the preparation of complete papers not longer than 6 pages, which must be submitted by Apr. 15, 2017.

 Please e-mail your abstracts in a MS WORD or PDF file to the following address: isiss2017@163.com

Registration

Registration fee will cover attendance at all sessions of the symposium, refreshment, one set of the symposium proceedings and the symposium dinner. The registration fee is US$500 for presenters and US$300 for students. For accompanying persons, the registration fee will be US$300 without the proceedings.
